DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because boxes (block diagrams) need to be properly filled. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 1-10 are objected to because of the following informalities: It is unclear what is meant by the phrase "one of represents" recited in claim 1. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2838

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-5 and 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Voss (4,629,967).

Voss discloses a circuit system for generating a stabilized supply voltage in a motor vehicle including a voltage regulator having at least two operating modes (flat mode and temperature compensated mode); wherein at least one temperature quantity is recorded which at least one of represents and influences an operation of the circuit system, and an operating mode is selected as a function of the temperature quantity (the mode is selected by making or not making an electrical connection which is influenced by the measured temperature of a transistor). The linear regulator (flat mode regulator) and the switching regulator (temperature compensated regulator) are responsive to a measured temperature of the regulators. Voss further discloses a comparison element (NPN transistors 130 and 132, PNP transistors 162 and 164) for comparing the recorded temperature to a predefined threshold value and means for recognizing an exceeding of the threshold value (see col. 10, lines 22-54).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Voss (4,629, 967) in view of the acknowledged prior art (German Patent No. 40 15 351).

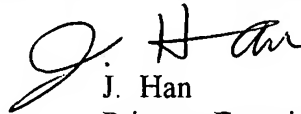

Voss discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for the first regulator connected in parallel to the second regulator. The acknowledged prior art teaches clearly that the use of a linear regulator and a switching regulator connected in parallel as voltage regulators is well known in the art. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to employ voltage regulators connected in parallel to obtain the claimed invention, as taught by the acknowledged prior art, for the purpose of providing regulators activated as a function of the exceedance of predetermined voltage values wherein different operating modes of the voltage regulator is set.
